

Great Ayton Shops, Pubs & Restaurants – Park Square

Mike Newton February 2011

1930's – Coates Grocer &
Provisions Dealer
(Coopers Chemist located here in 2010)

1940's – Well House (Worthy Pearson in 2010)
With Edith Kitching Bakers in the distance.
In flood!

Park Square Shops in 1939

Edith Kitching – Bakers
R S Williamson – Chemist
George Wilson - Plumber

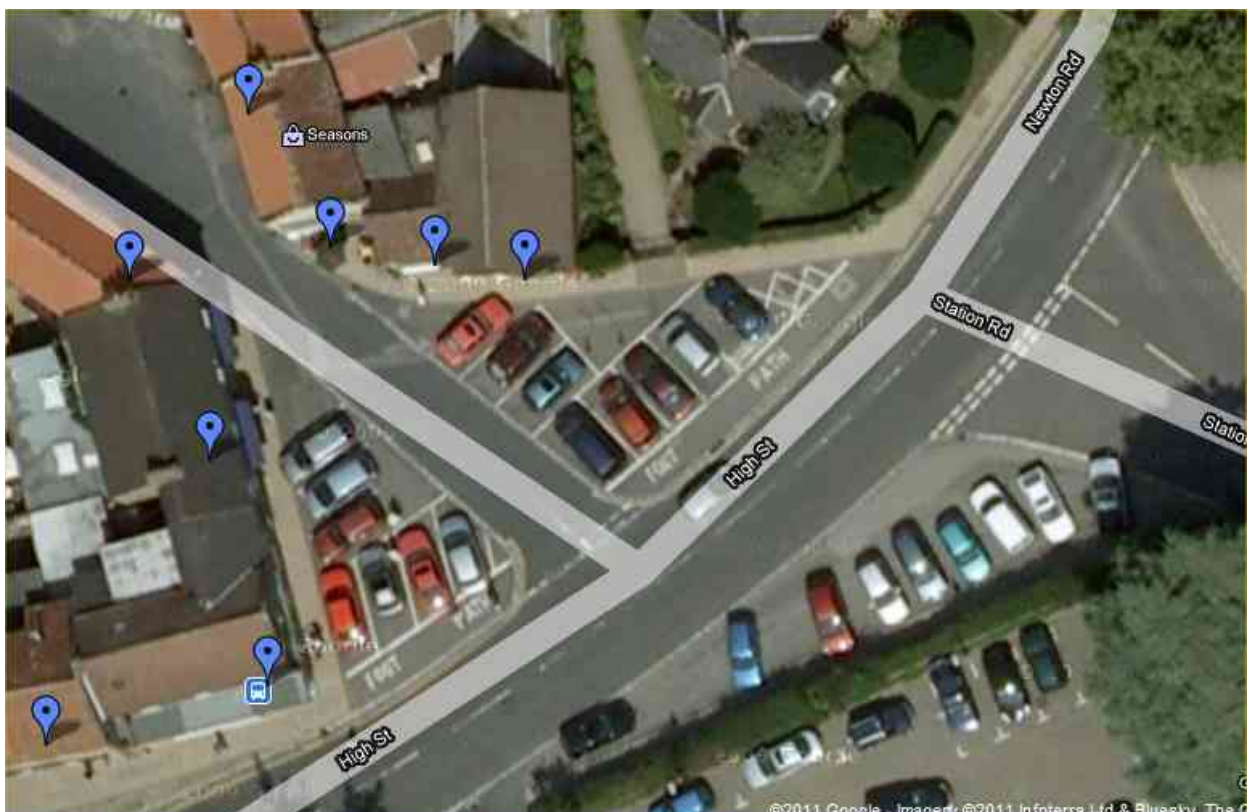

1950's – Williamson Chemist in flood

1960's – Worthy Pearson newsagent
and Gibson Bakery

2008-10 Shops, Pubs & Restaurants

1, Park Square Seasons Dress Shop Proprietor: Christine Taylor For all the latest trends in Ladies Fashions and a large Selection of Accessories This shop was a haberdashery for a few years then shut down. Dave & Lynn Lax bought it in about 1998 and turned it into the Seasons Dress Shop. The business was sold to Christine Taylor in about 2003.	2a, Park Square Coopers Gifts Owned by Coopers Pharmacy In 1939 this shop was the R S Williamson Chemist. In the earlier 1930's it was Coates Grocer & Provisions Dealer	3, Park Square Worthy Pearson (Newsagents & Post Office) Proprietor: Paul Ancell Worthy Pearson relocated off the High Street to this location in the 1970's. The Post Office moved to be within Worthy Pearson from the High Street in September 2002.

4, Park Square Johnson's Fruiterer Proprietor: Mark Johnson	4a, Park Square Willow Home & Gifts Proprietors: Carol & Angela Maughn Opened around 1995	5, Park Square Park Square Café Proprietors: Stephen Bland & Sarah Cotterill Changed hands in 2009 This was a dairy until about 2002

5, Park Square No. 5 Coffee House Proprietor: Victoria Maylard Hot & Cold Beverages; Cakes; Scones
		